Duplicates Report

This report looks at person records within the organisation. and compares them to either its own records to search for duplicates within the current organisation or to the national database to search for duplicate person records outside the current organisation.

This report is most effective when run by an organisation that has a large number of person records in its database. You can then choose to manage the displayed duplicates by submitting merge requests for them.