You can change the Score Type from a legal ball (Runs) to an illegal ball (No Balls, Wides, Byes, Leg Byes, No Ball + Runs) or vice versa.

You can't currently change a ball to a wicket. You'll need to undo to the ball before the wicket, then continue scoring from that point forward after adding in the wicket.

If you scored a wicket in error, you'll need to undo until before the wicket was scored in the match, then continue without adding the wicket.

From the Matches screen, select  and then Team Selection.

You can edit either of the Team lists by swiping left/right to view the desired Team, then select Edit Team to change the list, or Add More Players to add Players not already in the list.

You can change the Strike Batter by clicking on the right hand side of the Strike Batter name, where you see . This allows you to switch between the two batters at the crease.

To change the Strike Batter to a different Batter (not one already at the crease), select the Strike Batter name (not the arrow on the right) and a list of Batter names will become available for selection.

To change a Batter to a different Batter (not one already at the crease), select the Batter name by tapping on the Batter name (not the down arrow) and a list of Batter names will become available for selection.

When you change a Batter, once the new Batter has been chosen, you are prompted to select the reason for changing the Batter.

The options are:

- Retiring (not out)
